A woman in a vibrant, multi-colored striped headscarf and a black jacket with a yellow and red scarf is holding a large black-framed sign. The sign features a portrait of a man with glasses and a red, yellow, and green scarf. Below the portrait, the text "Ech, óm inte lieste" is written in colorful letters. To the right of the text is a stylized orange logo. The woman is wearing green gloves. In the background, there is a brick building with a sign that says "DE AFDELING" and "1911 V", a white car, and other people in costumes.
